DIVIDENDS DECLARED.

Action Taken by the Directors of Differen

Enilroads. New York, Dec. 23 .- The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad Company has de-large amount that has not been issued clared a semi-annual dividend of 21/4 per cent for money, labor or property, and an extra dividend of 11/4 per cent. A year the several reports of these roads show divi and an extra dividend of 134 per cent. A year ago they declared a regular dividend of 2 per cent and an extra dividend of 1 per cent. To- issuing any mortgage bonds or stock until an day's dividends make the company pay 6 per cent this year against 6 per cent last year. A resolution was passed that hereafter the regular dividends should be at the rate of 5 per or examination, and if found to be a true accent per annum.

The Michigan Central railroad has declared a vidend of 1 per cent. The Canada Southern Company has declared regular dividend of 1½ per cent.

The directors of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha railroad have declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent on the preferred stock, payable January 20: books close December 31 and reopen January 21.

Ellis F. Bard Sentenced to Prison for Five

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 23.—Ellis F. Bard, who plead guilty to embezzling nearly $10,000 from the Lincoln National Bank of Lincoln, Pa., and Franklin W. Hull, who was convicted of aiding and abetting him in the embezzlement, were today sentenced by Judge Butler in the United States district court to five years' im prisonment each in the Eastern Penitentiary.
Pard was cashier of the bank and Hull was one of its depositors. Eard allowed Hull to overdraw his account to the amount of almo $40,000. When the defalcation could no longe be concealed Eard made a confession hank's directors. He was arrested and plea guilty. It was mainly upon his evidence the Hull was convicted.

MR. SCULLY PROTESTS.

He Charges Undue Influence in Connectio With Illiterate Voters. KILKENNY, Dec. 23.-Sir Vincent Scully ha lodged a petition protesting against the election of Sir John Pope Hennessy on the ground of influence on the part of the priests, particularly referring to the priests' action in connection with the illiterate voters. It is announced here that Dr. Tanner is bringing suit against Mr. Parnell for libels contained in speeches made by the latter during the course of the late political campaign. The leading members of the Parnellite party in this section, after the announcement of the defeat of Vincent Scully had been made, were to be seen doicfully parading the court house passages, apparently being in a very despond-ent state of mind. Mr. Hennessy when he left the court house claimed he had at least a majority of 1,000.

THE TRANSPORTATION QUESTION.

ttorney General Leese of Nebraska Favors Government Control of Railroads. LINCOLN, NER., Dec. 23 .- In his report to the eral Leese has added some fuel to the excitetation question without gloves and advocating governmental control of railroads.

In speaking of the board of transportation which is composed of five state officers, including the attorney general, he says the present system is a complete failure, experience fully demonstrating that the railroads are too powerful in their influence for the erful in their influence for the people to expect much relief under the present system. The attorney general recom-mends that a maximum schedule of rates should be adopted by the legislature on a basis with lighten the burdens of the people and not merely to make as large a point as possible for the eastern investor. The rates charged today, he says, are large enough to yield a dividend amounting in some cases to per cent on the stock that cost the stocklders nothing whatever but for the printing, and the officers of these roads use every effort and strain every point to have the stockholders of their roads receive their annual dividends and they have to do this to hold their

It is an admitted fact that the railroads in the city dends on all such stock. I would recommend a law forbidding any railroad corporation from count of the money, labor or property received to register and certify that the same are issued regular dividend of 2 per cent and an extra in pursuance of law and as constituting a part of the capital stock of such corporation.

BISHOP OF WORCESTER.

Rev. Dr. James S. Brown, Dean of Peter borough, Appointed. LONDON, Dec. 23 .- The Very Rev. John James Stewart Brown, D.D., dean of Peterborough has been appointed bishop of Worcester in the place of the Right Rev. Henry Philipot, D.D., who recently resigned. Dr. Brown was born March 13, 1823, at Burdwan, Bengal, of a French Huguenot family, and came to this country at the revocation of the edict of Nantes. The newly appointed bishop was educated at Norwich grammar school and at Corpus Christi College, Cambridge. He was appointed Belles' University scholar in 1842, and from that time won honor upon honor, he was appointed an honorary chaplain to the queen May 12, 1875, and in August, 1878, upon the recommendation of Lord Beaconsfield he was nominated by the crown to the deanery of Peterborough. He is the author of many valuable works.

HE WANTED TO BE ARRESTED. PALERMO, Dec. 23.-An anarchist named Gregoire today appeared before the French consul and requested that official to place him under arrest. Gregoire said that he wished to bearrested so that he might be enabled to appear before the court in Paris and give his testimony as an abestor in the fight of Podlewski, who is alleged to have murdered the Russian police agent, Gen. Seliverskoff, in that city. The consul refused to comply with the request. It has heretofore been reported that Podlewski took ship from Triest for a South American port. Gregoire, however, told the consul that he was probably hiding in Sicily. THE SPANISH CUSTOMS TARIFF.

Madrid, Dec. 23 .- A royal decree issued today alters the customs tariff and appoints a commission to take steps to bring about a series of reforms in the commercial treaties now existing between Spain and other countries. The object of the government in making this new departure is to strengthen its electoral influence by promptly applying a policy of protec-tion to the country and possibly to its colonies

Beneath the photograph Senator Paddock pasted a slip of paper on which he had written: "Photograph of Baby Duvall, written: "Photograph of Baby Du who died early from too much cl tening. The following are the tismal names which crushed out oung life." Then followed a list of the distinguished Senators who have contributed to

First he named the child James Mc-Millan, and then a week or two later (the first $5 sent having been disbursed for whisky) Duvall wrote the Michigan Senator to the effect that little James had fallen out of his cradle and broken a leg. A doctor's bill had resulted from the sad accident and the Senator

To the Editor of The Evening Star: Please permit me through the columns of THE STAR, always open to correct abuses, to call the attention of the "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals" to a daily shame. I refer to the constant overloading and goading of wagon teams hauling bricks, stone, &c., up the Tenleytown road. A two-horse or mule team is required to pull loads too great for dead levels—leads that frequently break down the best of wagons—up the red hill beyond the power house, where there is one of the longest and severest grades in the District of Columbia. It is pitiable to see these teams going by all day long, pulling their very hearts out under a brutal lash, trying to an exhibition—i will not say of cruelty—but of brutality to animals ever was seen before in this city or its suburbs. The grade up that this city or its suburbs. The grade up that hill is nearly 6 per cent for about a quarter of a mile and represents one of the most conspicuous of our engineering blunders. A very small outlay, far less than the annual loss to in shape for the delivery of the dinners tosary and wholly uscless grade, would reduce it certainly one-third, to the great convenience of the public and the inexpressible comfort of the dumb animals who are daily compelled to climb it. It may be that we are too poor to correct the engineering error now; let it not be said that we are too heartless to prevent or restrain an abuse the remedy for which is inexpensive and within the limits of our authorextrain an abuse the remedy for which is inexpensive and within the limits of our authority and power. The Bill to Provide Against the Contraction of the Currency as Reported Today. The Senate committee on finance met this morning and directed Senator Sherman to report to the Senate immediately (which was one) the bill "to provide against the contraction of the currency and for other purposes," commonly known as the republican caucus bill. The measure was, however, amended in two important particulars at this morning's meeting. The first was the exclusion of section 4 of the bill. This section provides that when the national bank circulation falls below $180,-000,000 the deficiency shall be supplied by the issue of treasury notes based on silver bullion purchases if the silver can be purchased or if not by the direct issue of notes. The second amendment was the insertion in place of the section stricken out of the following section: That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue in a sum or sums not exceeding in the aggregate $200,-000,000 coupon and registered bonds of the United States in such form as he may prescribe of that sum, redeemable in lawful money at the pleasure of the United States on and after July 1, 1900, and bearing interest semi-annually at the rate of 2 per cent per annum. And he is authorized to sell or "dispose of the bonds" issued under this act at not less than United States, or for gold or silver certificates, and to apply the proceeds thereof to the redemption or to the purchase of any of the bonds of the United States.

And the bonds hereby authorized and the proceeds thereof shall be used for no other purpose whatever. And the sum to pay the expense of issuing and disposing of the said bonds is hereby appropriated out of any sum of money in the treasury not otherwise appropri-

This action s for $5,000 damages (including $500 for loss to business, $50 expended in endeavoring to be cured and $25 for repairs to his hack) by reason of the railroad safety gate at then by Judge Hoge. There is almost no chance of the case being completed before the intersection of New Jersey avenue and I streets southeast on the night of December 14, 1888, being lowered and falling on him, knocking him off the hack senseless, cutting his head and causing the horses to run away on the railroad track and breaking the carriage. The hack driven by the complainant had two passengers in it at the time, and he claimed that he was driving along and without any warning the beam was lowered or fell on him, mocking him senseless. The defense claimed hat the gates were down, as the gateman kept them down excepting to let a team through and, the driver being intoxicated, his horses struck the gate and being on a balance the beam flew up and, as it descended, he was struck. In other words, the defendant claims that the accident was the result of plaintiff's

my in the Ward Case All Argument Begun.

PRAYERS SUBMITTED TO THE COURT AND ABOUED BY BOTH THE PROSECUTION AND DEFENSE-THE CONDITION OF WARD'S MIND THE PRIN-CIPAL POINT AT ISSUE.

The morning session of the Ward trial was hardly as interesting, from a general standpoint, as those that have preceded it, and as a result the audience in the court room was not as large as usual. It became evident yesterday that the case was drawing rapidly to a close and that almost all of the evidence was before the jury. When the counsel entered and took their seats at the tables before the judge's desk this morning they started in as though they were anxious to get through with the case before Christmas if possi-ble. They all looked

MR. DURAMEL. task to conduct a great case at law like this, and not the smallest share of the work has to be done outside of the court room and after the court has adjourned for the day. Of the law-yers of the defense Mr. Jeremiah Wilson. Mr. Coleman, Senator Blackburn, Mr. Chapin Brown and Mr. W. K. Duhamel, the two latter have taken rather an inconspicuous part in the case in the court room. A large part of the time, for in-stance, Mr. Duhamel is absent or moving in and out looking up necessary books and papers and keeping the case in running order, so to speak, in that way, and a large part of the work of preparing the evidence and the line of testimony to be followed has fallen upon him. It has been well done throughout the whole of the case. The prayers to the court were delivered this orning. A number of law points remained to be argued in this connection and after they are completed the arguments to the jury remain to be given. Mr. Clagett will probably lead for the government, followed by Mr. Wilson and Senator Blackburn for the defense and Christmas.

POLICEMAN HAMILTON CALLED BY THE DEPENSE. Promptly at two minutes before 10 o'clock this morning the jury in the Ward case filed into the court room and took their seats in the jary box. They were almost the first ones in the room, but the counsel for the defense followed closely after and the day's work was Officer Hamilton, who made the arrest of Ward on the night of the shooting, and who was a witness for the prosecution, was recalled as the first witness for the defense this morning. Mr. Wilson questioned him as to what he heard Ward say at the time of the arrest. Officer Hamilton testified that to the best of his collection Ward had remarked either "I done him," "I done it" or "I'm done for," one of them, the witness was not sure which.

Officer Hughes, who was with Hamilton in making the arrest, was next called. He was President's callers today were Senator Mander- asked if he had seen John W. Witness also denied a number tions about an alleged conversation between the two.

Mr. Wilson asked that Mr. Drew's testimon in the preceding examination be read, but Mr. Hoge objected. Mr. Wilson then said that the defense was willing to bring the case to a close, with the privilege of introducing the witness Drew, or proposed that the government select one of its number to represent it, with one

Mr. Wilson said he had no other witness that could be examined very well before McKenney, as when the defense were through with him they would practically have finished up with their testimony. Mr. McKenney then entered the room and was placed on the stand. He testified that he was ticket agent and general officer aboard the Jane Moseley and was formerly a special police officer in this city. Some time in June, 1889, about six or eight days before the Moseley begon proving which was an entered to the Moseley begon proving which was an entered to the Moseley begon proving which was an entered to the Moseley begon the manufactured to the Moseley begon fore the Moseley began running, which was on the 17th of June, he saw Adler and Ward in the Marble Saloon together. They matched for a bottle of wine and Ward won. They then matched for a $5 bill and Ward won again. Adler asked for satisfaction, but Ward paid no attention to him and left the saloon. Cross-ex-amined, he thought that the 17th of June was a Tuesday, but was not sure about it. MR. NEUMEYER RECALLED.

Mr. Neumeyer, the proprietor of the Marble Saloon, was next recalled to testify about what Ward said at the time of his arrest. He said that he was standing close by when the officer took Ward into custody, but he heard no such remarks as Ward is said to have made. He did not hear Ward say, "I done the s- of a - -," or any other remark of that nature. Mr. Neumeyer also testified to the occurrence between Adler and Ward that was told of by McKenney. When cross-examined by Mr. Clagett he admitted that the police came into the saloon so quickly after the shooting that it seemed as though they had received their cue in a theater. He was with them and also went over to see Adler lying on the floor, but he was confident that Ward did not make any remarks about the shooting. Mr. Ginnity was also present at the time Ward and Adler matched for wine and thought it was about six or seven days prior to the shooting. He was within ten feet of the officers when they arrested Ward, but he denied hearing any remarks made by Ward with reference to the occurrence.

THE DEFENSE RESTS ITS CASE. Mr. Wilson then announced that the defense would rest its case with the reservation as to the privilege of introducing the absent witness Drew's deposition. DR. SCHAEFPER CALLED, BUT DID NOT RESPONI

Dr. Schaeffer was recalled by the government to give evidence in rebuttal, but he was not to be found, nor was Mr. Rollins, by whom Mr. Clagett said he expected to prove that Ward, when taken to the station house, acted in a perfectly rational manner, gave his name and occurred to the state of th Coleman then arose and inasmuch as the defense gone to the trouble of shortening its case in order to get through by Christmas it was only proper that they should be allowed to proceed with the prayers and instructions to

Mr. Clagett remarked that it looked from that as though Ward was not much of a bankrupt at the time of the shooting.

Dr. Schaeffer still failing to put in an appearance it was agreed upon between counsel on the two sides that they would proceed to make their prayers to the court and atterward to examine Dr. Schaeffer for the government and to read Drew's testimony as it was given in the previous examination on the motion to ad-

After The Star's report of the Ward trial closed yesterday Surgeon General Hamilton testified that he saw the spinal cord of Adler at the time of the autopsy and that to all ap-

Mr. Wilson and Mr. Coleman both stated to the court that they had not asked and would not ask any questions to prove that the medical treatment of Adler was not a proper one. They would not go into that branch of the defense at all, as the testimony in the case had so developed that the first two lines were in their opinion perfect and they would abandon the troversy between physicians that would proba-bly carry the case through and after Christmas. Considerable argument ensued as to the pro-priety of allowing much of the medical testi-mony to remain on the records in case the third line of defense is shandoned.
